

DANGEROUS GOODS INFORMATION FOR PASSENGERS

For your safety, spare lithium batteries used for electronic devices such as cameras, mobile phones, laptops etc. and dangerous articles such as those specified below must not be carried in your checked-in baggage.

 Miscellaneous dangerous goods 	 Compressed gas 	 Radioactive materials 	 Flammable liquids 	 Poisonous substances
 Flammable solids 	 Infectious substances 	 Oxidising materials 	 Corrosives 	 Explosives and firearms

This list is not comprehensive.

Please consult ASL/JetNetherlands/Air Charters Europe representatives for details.

Carrying dangerous goods on board an aircraft is an offence.